“ Mary,
I was so sorry to hear about Jimmy. He was truly a special person. He always had a smile at work and was willing to help any and everybody. May GOD wrap you in his arms and comfort you and your family.

GOD Bless and Love,

“ Mary , I have never met you but I have spoken with you several times on the phone when I would be looking for Jimmy. I always liked Jimmy & Keith they were both very kind to me when I was sick & in the hospital. Jimmy would always find time to call & check up on me. I sure will miss Jimmy & I wanted to let you know that I am thinking of you & all my prayers go out to you & the rest of the family. I know he is in good hands.

“ To the family of Jimmy Gilmore,
Please know that our thoughts and prayers are with you all.
When we think of Jimmy immediately we think of his smile and laughter. He will be missed by so many. He had such a love for his family and friends and always brought joy to others. I think of his love of nature and how he shared that love especially with his brother, Keith. It was a joy to know Jimmy and we love you all.

Warmest love,

Jim and Annette Albert
