“ I remember when Adam was living here in New Orleans, he was so excited about riding in the Endymion Mardi Gras Parade. He stocked up on toys, saying “ It’s all about making the kids happy and for them to have fun.” He was excited, because he was planning to ride again this year saying, “I gotta make them smile... you know that’s how I roll.” He had the most beautiful spirit.

I’ll always remember him saying, “I ain’t scared”and “#WINNING”.

There was never a discussion that didn’t bring up Macie, Karleigh, his Dad and Mom and his Aunts, Uncles and his B4L, Joel. He loved his family more than life itself.

He loved to talk about his rodeo days and always said, “It’s for the kids”.... Loving, Positive, Giving, Joyful.... He was and always will be the Best of the Best! Forever in my heart ❤️
