“ I never knew what life could be with a sister. I grew up with 3 brothers and we lost my twin sister when she was only 42 days old. When I least expected it, Patricia Patterson Teal (My Tricia) became My Sister. Not an older sister, Not a younger sister, Not a Wiser sister with conditions. My Tricia was an Equal; a sister that did not measure Love through all the games people play with your heart. She loved a lot of people, but if you were her family, she loved "WITH YOU" when life was good, unpredictable, joyous, true or unfair. My Tricia and husband, Rick Teal will always be remembered as real, honest, tough spirited, non-materialistic, faithful to many, giving without expecting anything in return, as a treasure in life. Pat Teal (My Tricia) was the rock that held family together and My Tricia was funny. A jokesterRRR; a practical JOKER. She made Her husband Rick laugh all the time.... And Cara & I love to hear that Rick Teal laugh!!! I am looking forward to hearing Rick's laugh again. I love you both so very very much. Your sister and Sister-in-Law SYLVIA EITSON

“ I will never forget at zales one year we had Pat a surprise bday party with food, a cake and presents and we had her bday wrong in one of our calendars and we were a couple months early celebrating it! She was like this is so sweet but it's not my b- day and we didn't believe her because she would joke around all the time and so i made her show me her license, and sure enough it was NOT her birthday! She said she would never ever forget that birthday surprise:) Ashley Moon
